

American Ethnic Studies - Asian Studies

Goldie King

Submitted by Craig Cook

Goldie King is an exceptional choice for our 2025–2026 Outstanding Student of the Year in Asian American Studies. In addition to her stellar academic performance, she consistently demonstrates attentiveness, intellectual curiosity, and a strong commitment to learning. Goldie brings thoughtful critical thinking and meaningful reflection to course materials, often deepening class discussions with her insights. She arrives each week prepared and ready to actively participate, engaging respectfully with both the content and her peers. Her ability to connect ideas, ask important questions, and contribute to a collaborative learning environment truly sets her apart. Goldie exemplifies the qualities of a dedicated and inspiring student.